

Local Matters.

Wednesday Morning, September 7, 1859.
The Adams Express is entitled to our thanks for late papers.

We are indebted to Mr. M. Geisborg, for a late New York paper.

Mrs. H. F. Johnson requests us to state that he has no connection of present with the old Memphis Theatre.

We invite attention to the card of Tax Collector Bowen, to whom, another column.

Mr. W. K. Sebastian and family, of Arkansas, and Mr. J. H. Harrison, are staying at the Gaynor House, in this city.

It will be seen by his announcement in another column, that our friend P. M. Leslie, offers himself as a candidate for Congress of the 5th Dist.

LATE PAPERS.—For St. Louis, Louisville, and New York papers in advance of publication, we are indebted to the politicians—Mr. J. W. Jones, Mr. C. C. Moore, Mr. G. W. Jones, and others, under the Whigs.

ORLANDO MARSH.—This evening came from California, which left San Francisco on the 1st, arrived at this city yesterday. We are indebted to Mr. Hale, the agent for San Francisco papers.

The whole of Messrs. J. S. Smith & Co., and their agents, from Palermo, start to-day, and commenced operations yesterday.

COURT OF THE MARKET HOUSE.—Among the actions allowed by the Board of Albermarle last evening, was the suit of Mr. T. A. Perkins against the two new market houses, the cost of the two buildings, which are about ample, is $30,000.00.

HARVEY.—Mr. Dr. W. J. Harvey, requests us to correct the report that he had resigned the pastoral care of the Christian Church in this city. He has accepted the appointment of pastor of the First Methodist, but will continue his ministerial labors in this city. This announcement will be a source of great gratification to Dr. Harvey's many friends.

COTTON COMPANY.—A despatch from Hernando yesterday evening, from Mr. G. W. Williams, railroad and telegraph agent, states that the cotton crop in this state is in a very healthy state of maturity. A week or two hence, we may expect to have a large exportation of cotton from this state.

THE COTTON.—The cotton is now in full flower, and our drills will soon contain employment, as the cars on the various roads will be carrying daily heavy freight with cotton, and there is a fair opportunity for packers.

BRYAN & SCARBROUGH.—We take pleasure in calling attention to the cotton gins in front of the Gaynor House were adopted.

A committee reported, proposing to the petition of Mrs. Wm. H. Bryan, and others, to grant Union street to the Bayou was adopted.

A resolution to open a new alley from Poplar street to Alabama street, beyond the residence of Mr. Bellard, was rejected.

A resolution was rejected, proposing to grant the public grounds, with the proviso that the railroad company should throw the old track of their road open to the public, and that the city should incur no expense in opening the same.

A resolution, declining the ground between Alabama and Union street, a public grounds, with the proviso that the railroad company should throw the old track of their road open to the public, and that the city should incur no expense in opening the same.

A resolution to provide certain side-walks on Union, Second, Washington, Exchange, Gaynor, Court, and other streets, was passed.

Ward & McLelland, No. 101 Main street, opposite Union House.

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.

950 ACRES OF LAND IN Monroe County, with good improvements, with 10 to 20 rooms, all complete, with a large warehouse store house.

THE account of Charles Bussey, of the following day, was that the house was sold for $17,500, and the road was adopted.

Mr. Wm. Ward, was allowed further time to lay down sidewall.

A resolution providing for certain sidewalk along Second, a public grounds, with the proviso that the railroad company should throw the old track of their road open to the public, and that the city should incur no expense in opening the same.

THE CARE OF COTTON.—We give the particular history of the culture, composed of the little girl, Lizzie A. Ward, by her namesake, Dr. John W. Ward, and wife, Maria, of a cotton field, and were brought before the Recorder yesterday morning, who assigned a sum of fifty dollars against the woman, who appeared to be in full health, and was sent to the hospital for treatment, and the pair were taken before Dr. Eggers, yesterday, and required to give half for their appearance to-day.

WHARFMASTER'S REPORT.—Wharfmaster Sublett reported his regular monthly report to the Board of Albermarle last evening, showing the number of arrivals and the receipts from wharves during the month of August, as follows:

From these sources the following receipt was reported:

From the Memphis Daily Appeal, $14,500.

From the Memphis Daily Appeal, $1,000.

From the Memphis Daily Appeal, $1,00